I saw my consultant last Monday which resulted in me getting a feeding tube inserted again, this will help me to gain weight much quicker. I had 2 Xrays and a few tries to insert the tube but to no avail. I was sent home in the evening with the tube inserted but not in working order. The Nutritional Nurse came on Tuesday and successfully fitted the tube correctly so now I am up and running with 4 feeds a day. This is not a set back just a helping hand, I am feeling in good form, but still ask you to pray for me. Thank you.

Did you hear about the man who paid a friend £10,000 a week to do all his worrying for him?

When asked how he could afford that he said that was his friend's problem!
