Parish Priest's Corner

It was lovely to be able to concelebrate at the leaving Mass for the Sisters last weekend. It was great to see so many of the Sisters who had lived in the parish returning for this occasion. On Monday I had an enjoyable visit to Sheffield to see Bishop Ralph: this was a good tonic for me. I am making better progress with my eating and starting to enjoy the process too! This week sees an appointment on Tuesday for a bone marrow test, purely routine.

♪♪♪ On a lighter note

A man of the road knocked on the door of the St George and the Dragon and said to the landlady. "Kind lady, could you give a poor man something to eat?" "No!" said the landlady slamming the door. He knocked again and said. "This time could I have a few words with George?"
