A DORAMUS TE: Fr Maurice will be speaking next week at all the Masses about the Eucharistic Congress in Liverpool and how we can play our part in the parish. A wonderful publication by the Redemptorists will be on sale next week costing £5.00. I urge you to buy a copy, it is well worth the read and will be helpful in your Eucharistic adoration.

THE SVP thank you for the food items for the Erdington food Bank. They will also be making their monthly retiring collection. Thank You.

Thank you to all those who have volunteered to help so far.

F LOWER GROUP: Quite a few of our members are stepping down at the end of this month. I thank them for their time and creativity enhancing the church each week. I now appeal to parishioners to be part of the group. I am hoping that enough people will come forward so that we can have at least four groups so each group will arrange flowers once a month. Please don't worry if you think you don't have the skills: it might be a hidden gift! Please think about it; it would be sad if this group folded up and we have no flowers in church! Contact details to Claire or the parish office. Thank you.

Parish Priest's Corner

On Tuesday I had my bone marrow test which wasn't as bad as I was told it would be. As my minor surgery appointment has still not been finalised I have decided to go away to my sister's this afternoon for four weeks and return on a day flight when the appointment comes through. I will still let you know each week how I am fairing, as I know people look forward to my blog. I will be back for the parish Tea Party, for which I hope you will think about buying a ticket, and I'll see you there!

♪♪ On a lighter note

I will pick up some jokes in Ireland!
