FLOWERS IN CHURCH IN MEMORY OF:

Breda Keane

Parish Priest's Corner

Last Saturday evening I concelebrated at Mass and it was lovely to meet the people afterwards. On Sunday I had an enjoyable visit from my niece Catherine, my younger brother's child. She came to Birmingham as her boyfriend is doing further research at Birmingham University. She will be back this weekend. I had my usual walk with its usual gift of black stuff at the end. Then on Friday I had a surprise visit from my younger brother Ben who has been working in Australia for the last two years. He is staying for the weekend so we're having a great catch-up!

More one liners: You can tune a piano, but you can't tuna fish.

To write with a broken pencil is pointless.
