Parish Priest's Corner

Last Sunday I was able to visit my old home place Swanlinbar and visit my parents' grave. I was able to see a couple of my cousins and caught up on old news. Came back to Athlone Monday evening and was very tired Tuesday. Wednesday I had another session with the physiotherapist. Then Thursday headed back here. It was an uneventful journey, my brother escorted me back. Saw the Consultant this morning (Friday) and he is extremely pleased with me and will see me again in a month: hopefully by then they will have sorted my nose job out. He has recommended that I go back to my sister in August for a few weeks as she has done a good job. I am looking forward to catching up with you all. Keep the prayers going as I still need them to help me over the final hurdle. Thanks for all your support and care.

Fr Gabby CSsR
